HISTORY OF ADELINE (ARDELL) LOUISE BUHLER CLYDE

By Ardell in 1958 - age 65

I was born August 30, 1893, in Midway, Utah daughter of Gottfried and Louise Barben Buhler. I had a very happy childhood. My father and mother were highly respected and prominent in the community. They were religious and lived good lives. There were 12 children in our family: Franklin, William John, Joseph, Alma, Adeline, Francis, Ephraim, Orson, Roland, Bernice, Vesta, and Thurman.

My father built and operated the first creamery in Wasatch County. He was a merchant, farmer, and also had a public bath house. I clerked in his store for many years.

I attended sc-ool at Midway, graduated with a class of twelve from the eighth grade. I attended Wasatch High School for three years. After the second year, my mother died and I stayed at home two years to care for my brothers and sisters. I returned to High School for one more year. I was still with my friends as I had received a special promotion in the grade school under my teacher Charles Bronson. I completed the sixth and seventh in one year. I had a very wonderful teacher in the eighth grade, Theo B. Miller. He taught us so thoroughly that we had to study very little in the first year of High School.

I was baptized into the church on June 9, 1901, by Ben Hair . I have worked in the church all of my life, at the age of 13 I was Primary and M.I.A organist. I also held the position of secretary of the M.I.A. in the Midway Second Ward along with my organist job. I was also ward organist and Sunday School organist. Later I was Bee Hive Keeper for several years in the Heber First Ward. Then I served as Stake Bee Keeper for 16 years. I was M.I.A. Stake organist for two years. LaVon Mfllner and I conducted the closing session of Stake Conference for years, presenting our Bee Hive graduation on Swarm Day. I served as President of the Heber First Ward M.I.A. one year. When we moved to the Second Ward, I served as Primary and M.I.A. organist. When we moved back into the First Ward, I served as Second Counselor in the Relief Society to Reta Allen for a number of years. We moved to Gorman, California, and for three years we worked in the Sunday School that was organized on the Kinsey Ranch were we lived. I was a teacher and organist there. We moved back to Heber First Ward and I am teaching the Junior Gleaner class in M.I.A. I was organist in Relief Society and assistant in the ward. I play often in M.I.A. and Primary and also at funerals.

My friends in Midway were Tressie Coleman, Pansy Bonner, Myrtle Watkins, Effie Mortan, Della Sulser, Lilly Kumer, Lethe Coleman, Grace Sonderegger and many other--Guy and Henry Coleman, Dean Clyde, Guy Duke, Tom McMillon were also my friends. In high school my new friends were: Chloe Murdock, Deyce Moulton, Laura Clyde, E. Elthora Hicken, Lacy Aphenap, and Lethe Coleman.

Lethe and I rode to high school together taking turns with our father's buggy. In the winter we were brought to school by a team and sleigh. Sometimes it would take one period of school to thaw out from the cold. LeRay Ligie was also a dear friend of mine who lived in American Fork. Later when we were both married, we with our husbands spent much time together. She and her husband, Charly Thorne, now live in Hollywood, California. We visit once a year at least and have all through the years. Also the Aldous family, the Price family and the Lowery's were dear friends. We visited and went camping with Guy and Gladys Duke, Wade and Odetta Cummings and went with Leonard and Pansy Giles a lot.

I met my husband, L. Dean Clyde, at our eighth grade graduation dance in Heber City. I was 13 years old at that time. We kept company for eight years. He was away much of the time helping his father at the sheep herd and attending school at Provo and Logan in the winter time. I had other boy friends and he took other girls out when away, but when he came home it was understood that we would be together. I was married to Dean in the Salt Lake Temple on January 6, 1915 by Adolph Madson.

We made our home at Heber, Utah. My sisters came from Midway every weekend and after school was out to stay with us. They helped me with the children and we helped them. I also helped my father and brothers all I could. My father remarried a few months after my marriage, but my stepmother was cruel to the children.

Glenna LeRay was our first child born January 9, 1916, at Heber City, Utah. We were happy with her as we were with all our children. She attended public school.
